A diagram of a ballot paper for the Senate in NSW. The ballot is divided into six columns, each with a letter and a number in a box. The columns are: C (2) FAMILY FIRST, D (6) LIBERAL DEMOCRATS, J (3) SHOOTERS, FISHERS AND FARMERS, S (5) PAULINE HANSON'S ONE NATION, X (4) KATTER'S AUSTRALIAN PARTY, and AM1 (1) AUSTRALIAN LIBERTY ALLIANCE. A blue arrow points to the '1' in the AM1 box with the text 'Vote '1''. A red arrow points to the '1' in the AM1 box with the text 'Vote above the line only'.

1. On the long white ballot paper find Australian Liberty Alliance in column 'AM1' above the thick black line.
2. Vote by writing the number 1 in our box above the line, then number the other boxes above the line as suggested.
3. Finish after six boxes, or continue to number more boxes above the line in order of your own preference, placing Labor, Greens and Socialists last. Since you are voting 'above the line' please do not mark any box 'below the line' to ensure your vote counts.
